Subject: Report on "50th Birthday Meeting to Honor Morton Sobell"

Comments:

- (1) Meeting to honor MORTON SOBELL on his 50th Birthday, held on Tuesday, April 11th at 7 PM at the Hunter College Assembly Hall, 69th Street and Lexington Ave., New York, N.Y. Sponsored by Committee To Free Morton Sobell, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y., (212) 243-6030
- (2) The areas both inside and outside the auditorium were very quiet and orderly prior to and during the meeting - no pickets, pushers of literature, posters, etc. In the lobby copies of "Invitation To An Inquest" by WALTER and MIRIAM SCHNEIR were being sold. No other literature was available.
- (3) Attendance at the meeting was 1,000 to 1,200. Only "student types" present apparently were with parents. Most were neatly dressed, normal appearing men and women 30 to 70 years old - superficially of a higher calibre than those at meetings such as those sponsored by The Guardian, Fort Hood 3, etc.
- (4) The program was as follows:
 - (a) The program was moderated by WALTER and MIRIAM SCHNEIR who took turns introducing speakers, making announcements etc. WALTER opened the program with a laudatory history of SOBELL's "martyrdom", praise for those who have worked for his freedom, etc.

FY 100-107111

- (b) WALTER SCHNEIR praised the efforts of the lawyers who have attempted to free SOBELL. He introduced "honored guests" MARSHALL PERLIN and WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER (lawyers). Lawyer ARTHUR KINOY and Rabbi J. J. WEINSTEIN were not able to attend. BILL RUBIN of the "National Guardian" was introduced from the audience.
- (c) Dr. HENRY LINSHITZ, a nuclear physicist from the Univ. of Calif., was the first speaker. (See below).
- (d) Laudatory messages, regarding SOBELL, from various notables were read to the audience by WALTER SCHNEIR. These praised SOBELL and pledged support to his cause. Messages from JOHN HENRY FALK, JULES FEIFFER, JAMES BALDWIN, and Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING. KING's message was very specific in its support and sympathy for SOBELL and stated that he was unable to attend due to previous commitments. However he was there in spirit and could be considered an active supporter for the "Committee to Free Morton Sobell".
- (e) Mrs. ROSE SOBELL, mother of MORTON, gave a highly emotional talk, extolling MORTON's virtues, his exemplary behavior and attitude while in prison, his hopes for eventual freedom, etc. Played the "poor mother" role to the hilt to achieve the maximum emotional response.
- (f) DR. PHILIP MORRISON, nuclear physicist, then spoke. (See below).

NY 100-107111

(g) MRS. MORTON SOBELL gave an emotional talk on the faithful crusading wife. She almost seemed to enjoy the role.

(h) Final portion of program (talk by DR. HAROLD UREY) was not covered.

(5) Talk by LINSHITZ: Discussed the failure of the "scientific community" to come to SOBELL's aid during the investigation and trial. Stated that he himself was also guilty of failing to recognize the significance of this event and the importance of defending the free exchange of scientific information. He devoted most of his talk to an "explanation" of the stolen drawing of the cross section of an implosion type type weapon showing the shaped explosive charges, plutonium core, etc. His whole point was that the drawing did not contain enough significant data to be considered a critical Top Secret document. He made no effort to deny that the document was illegally transferred to Soviet agents. Although unstated, his argument was based upon the assumption that since the data stolen and transmitted was of insignificant value, there was no crime. From a technical point of view, his technical statements were correct but only simplified - however his conclusion and interpretation of the data were not valid. No comments or questions from the audience.

(6) Talk by MORRISON: Discussed the history of the whole development of the atom bomb - Manhattan Project, work in Chicago, Los Alamos, etc. Traced the development of the philosophies regarding the use of atomic weapons as held by scientists. Also discussed the reasons why the philosophies of military tactics and strategy developed for the war against Japan were not valid for post World War II defense. Made no statements favoring or condemning the actions and motives of the United States, Russia, Red China, etc. He reaffirmed the opinions previously stated by LINSHITZ.

- (7) An interesting aspect of the meeting was the fact that no speaker made any of the usual accusations of the United States in respect to imperialistic domination of the world, "witch hunting", persecution of minorities, cult of the military mind, etc. Neither did they praise Russia, Red China, North Vietnam, etc. Communism and anti-Communism were not mentioned. LINSHITZ's talk was primarily based upon a psuedo-scientific evaluation of the evidence and the miscarriage of justice resulting thereupon. MORRISON covered the philosophies of nuclear scientists during World War II and the "errors" in the basic assumption of our post war policies of containment, massive retaliation, etc. - surprizingly free of moral judgement and propoganda. The Vietnam War was never mentioned. To the uninitiated and gullible, the meeting was free of any Communist influence; those participating were not involved with current left-wing causes, and the whole affair was very objective and was dedicated to the pursuit of justice.

Robert and Michael Meeropol, sons of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, hold press conference

(Indicate page, name of newspaper, city and state.)

Q The same people who ordered the murder of the Rosenbergs also ordered the 1961 invasion of Cuba and financed the sabotage of the Cuban plane, said Marshall Perlin, a defense attorney at the historic and outrageous trial.

Q ROBERT AND Michael Meeropol, the sons of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, held a press conference at the headquarters of the Journalists Union of Cuba (UPEC) in Havana. They are visiting Cuba at the invitation of the Cuban Institute for Friendship with the Peoples.

The meeting with representatives of the mass media and correspondents from other countries was also attended by Marshall Perlin, an attorney who took part in the last stage of the trial of the Rosenbergs and is now working with their sons to reopen the case and win a post-mortem acquittal.

Also present were Morton Sobell, who was sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment (he served 18) in that same historic and outrageous trial; his wife Helen, a poetess and member of the National Committee to Reopen the Rosenberg Case; Elli, wife of Robert Meeropol, and their two small daughters; and Irma Armas, of the UPEC executive.

The same people who ordered the murder of the Rosenbergs also ordered the 1961 invasion of Cuba and financed the sabotage of the Cuban plane which resulted in the death of the 73 people, said attorney Perlin.

In response to a question, Michael said that a committee had been set up in the United States to reopen the case and prove to the world that his parents were innocent.

He added that he had always felt great admiration for the Cuban Revolution and its leaders and went on to say that the committee which they head seeks to contribute to the ideological development of young people of the United States by making them aware of the truth about the trial of their parents and the important political implications of the case.

Michael said that the Government of the United States was doing all it could to limit the Committee's access to information about the case. However, he said, they had obtained certain valuable documents by legal means, documents which, among other things, described the criminal conduct of Judge Kaufman and others reflecting the FBI fears about investigations of the case.

In his remarks Robert said that the Committee had sponsored meetings and demonstrations in different cities of the United States and that, in the last few months, thousands of people from all over the world had signed petitions requesting that the case be reopened.
